Report on the Examination of the Candidates of the Police Training School in Drill held in October 1899 by retired Sergeant Major Eden of the Bangalore Rifle Volunteers.

* * * *

In forwarding a roll with marks awarded each man at the drill examination which was held on 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th instant, I have the honor to make the following remarks :—

1. The men, as a body, appear to have been carefully instructed, and to have paid great attention during the time they have been under instruction ; as an auxiliary body, they deserve credit. They are, with a couple of exceptions, well set up, evidently to the Physical Exercises which they perform wonderfully well, considering the arm they have to use in these exercises. They are very steady on parade, and act excellently well on the "word of command" whether given right or wrong ; they know their places in all squad formations ; for these reasons I have awarded them 75 per cent of marks as a squad or company, and I am perfectly certain that any drill Instructor would award them the same, if not more.

2. The marks given for "Instruction" are at the rate that regular troops of the British Army would probably receive for correct drill and may be calculated at half or 50 per cent over that value; as men of the regular army who have had the same number of days at drill, with no other work, would be expected to improve themselves quite 50 per cent beyond what should be expected from men who have several other classes of instruction to attend in addition to their drill.

3. The same remarks apply to the manner and confidence in giving words of command. This part of the Drill requires more practice, it being a Drill in itself, and although the remark is hardly necessary, I think I may mention that drill instructors must have a good word of command.

4. I am not aware of how the position of the men whom I have examined may be affected by their drill, but I suggest that 50 per cent of marks should pass them, as a class of instruction, in a third class, 62½ per cent in a second class and 75 per cent in a first class.

The school in the Police Training School is a permanent institution. The amount sanctioned in 1893 was intended to meet the pay of seven officers for Kannada and Canarese and for undergoing training in this school. For reasons stated, that amount has not been fully spent. The Govt is requested therefore to sanction the following

From

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE, GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No. 9670-J 894 dated 21 February 1900 calling for information as to how many men in service were selected to undergo training in the Police Training School at Bangalore, and how many are now employed as Inspectors and Jamedars, I have the honor to state that since the opening of the School in October 1892, 8 batches of men received instruction in the School consisting of 4 Inspectors, 1 Chief Constable 25 Jamedars, 6 Jemadars, 59 Daffedars and 31 Constables and 218 recruits. Out of these 4 Inspectors, 1 Chief Constable, 16 Jamedars 6 Jemadars, 49 Daffedars, 65 Constables and 140 recruits passed in the final examinations held at the end of the Courses.

2 Out of the total number of 140 recruits who passed out of the Training School, 31 are now employed in the Police force as Inspectors and 36 men are Jamedars besides a fair number serving as Daffedars etc for which information is not immediately available in this office.

3. The Head Quarter Police School with a staff of 1 Inspector and 2 Drill Instructors has been in existence from 1871. It was first intended for the training of Constables and Daffedars for the Station House officers' duties. In 1892 the scope of the institution was extended by providing for training Candidates for the upper ranks of the subordinate Police under the Government Proceedings No 3146-7/ J. 7853-92 dated 25th August 1892. On the opening of the new district schools in 1897 at Bangalore Mysore, Hassan, Mandya, Kadur and Chitaldroog (vide Government Proceedings No 7395-6/ 7849 dated 28th December 1897) the lower class in the training school at Bangalore, was abolished and the school was maintained purely for training recruits and men in service for the higher grades.

4 Thus it will be seen that the school was established as a permanent institution for the training of recruits that desired to get into the Police service and a permanent teaching staff for the same was also provided. Subsequently it was found expedient to admit to the school deserving Policemen already in the service who wished to take advantage of it and the Government were pleased to sanction the disbursement of the full pay of such men during their stay at

at Bangalore for Instruction and the appointment of Commissioners during their absence and provided a sum of Rupees 7920/- to meet the extra cost incurred by appointing substitutes (Vide Government Proceedings Nos 9846-26/253-92 dated 21st December 1893 and 14153-4/1723 dated 15th June 1898). It will be observed therefore that the Government Proceedings referred to, applies to the grant of provision for enabling men in service to attend the Training School and not to the continuance of the School.

5. Owing to the exigencies of the service, it was not considered desirable to draw three Police Officers from each District, the number prescribed in the Proceedings quoted above and the years of plague in the last two years, have also interfered with the removal of experienced hands from the districts. I would therefore propose that that this provision may be allowed to stand good for the next term and the one after it.

6. The training of each batch takes 8 months and unless the school begins work on or about 15th March 1900, it will not be possible to complete the term and hold the examination before the end of the Calendar year. I request therefore that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of the Government to my opening the next class of the Training School on the 15th instant and to the continuing for the benefit of the Government Proceedings for 1893 to deserving Police officers in the service for two years more. I need not urge that this will involve no extra cost.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Arangasami Jengasi
Inspector General of Police in Mysore

No. 10182-3—J. 1001, DATED BANGALORE, 9TH MARCH 1900.

ORDER THEREON—It was expressly stated in Government Proceedings No. 9816-25—J. F. 53-92, dated 21st December 1893, that Government hoped that within about $2\frac{1}{2}$ years from the date of the Order, a proper training will have been given to all deserving men already in the Police Force in the Inspectors' or Jamedars' grade. This hope has not yet been realized, and there has been very great delay in giving effect to that Order.
